

Cardinal

This bird is 7 to 9 inches tall. Its black and red it's a little big. The bird is 7 to 9 inches . The Female Northern Cardinal is brown.

By Emily

The cardinal lives on wood land edges near rivers and towns. The nest looks a little small. The nest is made of twigs and grasses, lined with hair, is placed among bushes or a thicket.

NORTHERN CARDINAL

NORTHERN CARDINAL

It eats insects and fruits, it lays 3 to 4 white eggs that are spotted with brown.

It has a bill that is short, straight, heavy and red. The boy Cardinal brings the food so the girl Cardinal feeds the babies.

