Long ago there was a zombie named zombie doctor. He has brown hair. He has his own house and he has friends. His friends has a house and he goes to his friends house whenever he wants to.

Next they went to a haunted house. The House had stairs. It had TV. It has zombie cats and zombie alligators.

Then a mummy scared them. The mummy fell into a hole. They went to the house. The house was falling apart and they can't find there way out.

Last they found their way out. They saw a house. They had a party at the house that they saw.
