

Lindy the Coyote

Once upon a time there was a coyote named Lindy who likes to eat apples and candy. She howls all night. She has big sharp teeth. She has big fur and she chases owls. She lives in the woods.

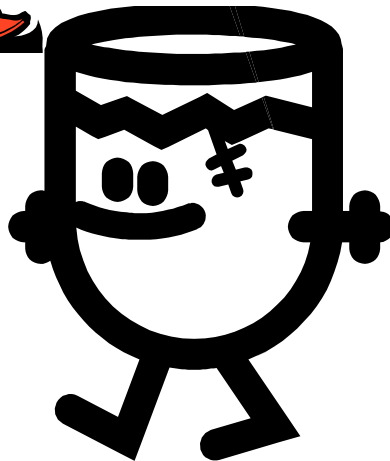

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

Lindy haunted the house it had witches, bones, bats, brooms, owls, black cats, and Frankensteins. It does not light and on the floor it has slime, jack o lanterns and webs.

Lindy the coyote broke the window because she threw pebbles and her mom got mad.

The problem got solved by putting card board over the broken window and she had to play with her toys.

Happy Halloween
